FedStore Ranks No. 31 on the 2009 Inc. 500 with Three-Year Sales Growth of 3,748.8%

Washington DC, August 19, 2009 -- Inc. magazine ranks FedStore No. 31 on its 28th annual Inc. 500, an exclusive ranking of the nation's fastest-growing private companies. The list represents the most comprehensive look at the most important segment of the economy—America's independent-minded entrepreneurs. Companies such as Microsoft, Intuit, Oracle, and hundreds of other powerhouses gained early exposure as members of the Inc. 500. "If you want to know which companies are going to change the world, look at the Inc. 500," said Inc. editor Jane Berentson. "These are the most dynamic, fast-growth companies in the nation, the ones finding innovative solutions to problems, creating smart systems, and inventing products we soon discover we can't live without. The Inc. 500 list is Inc. magazine's tribute to American business ingenuity and ambition."

Since 2001, FedStore has provided IT integration services for the federal government, focusing on information security, data storage, networking, and consulting. As a prime contract holder on NASA's SEWP IV (Solutions for Enterprise-Wide Procurement) GWAC contract (#NNG07DA43B) FedStore works with a host of Government agencies and end users to design, deliver and support information technology solutions within the Federal Government market. FedStore has strategic alliances with leading IT providers like Dell, HP, Cisco and others to offer the latest in technology solutions.

"We're working hard to distinguish ourselves by bringing innovation and a fresh approach to the delivery of IT product solutions in the federal market," said FedStore president Jack Cayouette. "Inclusion in the Inc. 500 lets us know we're on the right path."
